With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner, your valor must save.

TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 7, 1864.

The Election Yesterday.

Multnomah county has acquitted herself nobly. How the hearts of our Eastern friends will leap for joy when the news from Oregon flashes over the wires, and they read that the Occident responds in sympathy with the Union-loving Orient. Our county is a fair reflex of the State, and loyalty is jubilant over the contest at the ballot box through its results. We have all along felt confident that the true sentiment of our people was overwhelmingly with the Union, but the the unfortunate misunderstandings which gave rise to so many split tickets for a time threatened to present its unequivocal expression. But the shades of evening lowered gently upon all discomfitted opposition, and we trust that henceforth, profiting by the severe lesson of yesterday, opponents will be opponents no longer, but all unite in hearty and sincere support of those whom the popular voice has selected to the places of honor and profit.

The Returns.

The returns which came in up to the time of our going to press indicate a large Union majority in the State. They come in but slowly, however, and we are this morning able to give only the general results along the line of teleraphic communication. Lane and Jackson counties are the only ones which have not yet reported Union majorities. Our telegrams give us figures as follows:

Corvallis 70 to 90 majority.

Albany, about 50 majority all round.

Roseburg, 8 precincts (Douglas county) 139 majority.

Salem, about 327 majority.

Polk county, about 50 majority.

The four precincts of Multnomah county, detailed elsewhere, give a Union majority of 492, swelling the total majorities thus far to about 1,100 for the Union ticket!

TERRIBLE STATE OF AFFAIRS IN TEXAS.—The Times' New Orleans correspondent says: Gen. A. J. Hamilton had arrived there, and gives a lamentable account of the state of affairs in Texas, and the withdrawal of a large force of our troops, which will place Unionists in a painful position. They are already in a frightened condition. Whole families who a year or two since were enjoying all the comforts of life, are now reduced to beggary. All the able-bodied men have been run off by the rebels conscription, and their families left helpless and without protection.

OSSIAN E. DODGE.—This celebrated man, who for twenty-five years has stood head and shoulders above any other man in his profession, is expected to arrive in Portland in a few days, and favor our citizens with one or two of his inimitable concerts, assisted by Wm. Hayward unanimously pronounced the sweetest singer in the country. It is twenty-two years since we saw Dodge, but his mirth-provoking imitations are as fresh in memory as if but so many weeks had elapsed. The Portlanders have in store a rich treat indeed.

FARE OF UNION PRISONERS.—One of Col. Dahlgren's men who escaped from Richmond writes that there were Union prisoners in the Libby Prison with him "who actually eat horse beef, and even dog, and were glad to get it; and he adds:

"One man I saw in the prison before I went to the hospital had one of the dog's paws that he ate of on the island. He said that he was going to keep it and fetch it to our lines when he came. The prisoners on Belle Island, although nearly exhausted from exposure and starvation, were detailed to carry wood about three-fourths of a mile. Some of them were so weak that they could hardly get around, and would refuse to fetch wood."

MARION COUNTY.—A letter from Hon. Joseph Engle dated Waconda, June 5th, 10 A. M., says: "We are progressing finely—twenty Union tickets deposited thus far, and not one copperhead. We will beat them four to one. Nearly every voter contributes something to the Sanitary cause."

THE CARD OF S. L. LOVEJOY, Esq. — We learned last evening that the card of Mr. Stevens was placed in the hands of the clerk of this office on Friday, in time for Saturday's issue. By some oversight we did not see or know of its existence until the time stated by us (Saturday afternoon), and could certainly have no object in deferring its publication.

THE NEW SOUTHERN CONFEDERACY. — In view of the late successes of Grant and Sherman, says the Sacramento Union, it is said that we will have two Southern Confederacies in Dixie, Grant or Butler presiding over the one at Richmond, and Sherman, or some other good Union General, presiding over the other at Atlanta.

Queen Victoria has nine children, aged respectively 23, 22, 20, 17, 16, 15, 13, 10 and 6 years. Five are girls and four boys. Three are married.

Instructions have been sent from the Department at Washington, that all city, town, and other corporation scrip, must bear the same stamp as those used on mortgages.

CRITTENDEN COMPROMISE.—EXTRACTS:

"I was not sent here for the purpose of making any compromise, or patching up existing difficulties. I leave, sir, to the sovereign State of Mississippi to determine for herself her present Federal relations."—Singleton, of Miss.

"I might as well say in advance, that I am opposed and believe my State is opposed, to all and every compromise. The day of compromise has passed."—Hawkins, of Florida.

"Believing that a State has the right to secede, and that the only remedy for the present evil is secession, I will not hold out any delusive hope, or sanction any temporizing policy."—Clopton, of Ala.

"As my State intends following South Carolina out of the Union by the 10th of January next, I pay no attention to any action taken in this body."—Pugh, of Ala.

"So far as the Union is concerned, the cold sweat of death is upon it. Your Union is now dead. Your Government is now dead. There is a fixed, determined will that they will be free."—Wigfall, of Texas.

"The day for adjustment is passed. If you would give it now, you are too late."—Benjamin, of La.

"The States in their sovereign capacity have now resolved to judge of the infraction of the Federal compact, and of the mode and measure of redress. Shall we cling to the mere forms or idolize the name of Union, when its blessings are lost—after its spirit has fled?"—Davis, of Miss.

"Sir, the Southern States that are now moving in this matter are not doing it without consideration. We believe that the only security for the institution to which we attach so much importance is secession to the South. Repeal them all to-morrow, sir, and it would not stop the progress of this revolution. It is not your Personal Liberty bills that we dread; nor do we suppose that there will be any overt acts on the part of Mr. Lincoln. For one, I do not dread overt note. I do not propose to wait for them. We intend to go on."—Iverson, of Georgia.

KENTUCKY SLAVEHOLDERS.—A letter from Henderson, Kentucky, says:

The slaveholders here are on the anxious seat. They fear the bands of robber, denominated guerillas, as these specimens of chivalry seem disposed to levy contribution on friend and foe, and they are in constant dread of losing their "niggers." I don't know if it would not be a good plan to let a few bands of these desperadoes slip through the Union lines in Tennessee to harass the "loyal" State of Kentucky, as it might induce the State to raise her quota, and I think if it is rightly managed, the non-slaveholders will yet demand negro enlistments. Of course I am in favor of this, though three of my able-bodied chattels are enrolled.

THE STRANGE RIVER NAMES. — Late dispatches from the seat of war in Virginia have made frequent mention of the rivers Po, Ta and Ny. These are not laid down on most of the maps in use. They are all branches of the Mattapony river which empties into the York at West Point. As you ascend this river to near its source, you find it dividing into four small rivers in Spotsylvania county, which are respectively named (beginning with the southernmost) Mat, Ta, Po and Ny—uniting near the eastern line of the county into the Mattapony. The Po passes just south of the Spotsylvania Court House. —Herald.

The editor of the Richmond Dispatch, the most ferocious of the rebel papers, is said to be Oliver P. Baldwin, formerly a resident of Cleveland. Twenty-five years ago he was a law student in that city, but subsequently studied divinity and went to Virginia, where he became editor of a literary weekly journal. Baldwin was distinguished as a fine scholar, and a handsome but not a very forcible speaker. He is now the bitterest rebel in rebeldom.

Carl Heinzer has written a long letter to Senator Sumner suggesting that the most effectual way of checking Napoleon's operations in Mexico is for the United States Government to appropriate money to encourage revolutions in Europe. Several of the Eastern German press favor the plan.

Prentice says whiskey is so dear and mean in the rebel Confederacy, that 'tis bankruptcy to buy it and death to drink it.

When the present Administration came into office, there were but 45 vessels in commission. Now there are 622.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—Dispatches from General Grant's headquarters, dated the 1st, 10 o'clock, A. M., have been received that state that about 3 o'clock in the afternoon of the 31st, Sheridan perceived a force of rebel cavalry at Cold Harbor, which proved to be Fitzhugh Lee's division, and after a fight routed it, together with Clement's brigade of infantry which came to Lee's support. Sheridan remained in possession of the place. At dark he reported that he had a considerable number of prisoners, and rebel dead and wounded on the field. He was ordered to hold the position.

Gen. Wright and Sheridan have not been heard from this morning and it is not known whether the former got his troops to their destination.

Gen. Smith must be close upon Gen. Wright or Sheridan this morning.

The enemy is also moving a heavy column in the same direction. An order has just gone for Warren to fall upon their flank.

Gen. Wilson had a fight last evening near Hanover Court House, with Young's brigade of Cavalry. Young was routed, killing and capturing many. There has been a good deal of artillery firing in that direction this morning.

Warren reported last night that in his fight on the afternoon of the 30th, near Bethsaiden Church, Col. Terril of the 13th Va., and Col Willis, commanding Pegram's brigade were killed. Ten other commissioned officers and seventy privates captured. Sixty rebels were buried on the field.

Burnside reports his advanced line being this morning within a mile and a half of Mechanicsville.

(Signed) STANTON.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—A dispatch from Grant dated 7 o'clock this morning, at Bethsaiden Church, states, yesterday afternoon an attack was ordered to be made by our left at Cold Harbor, by the sixth corps with the troops under Smith, Warren, Burnside and Hancock, they being held in readiness in advance in their respective fronts. The attack was made with spirit about 5 o'clock, P. M., continuing until after dark, resulting in our carrying the enemy's works on the right, and the sixth corps still hold them. We also carried first line in front. Smith later, however, was in command of works in the rear, which made those carried untenable. The enemy made repeated assaults on each corps not engaged in the main assault, but were repulsed with loss in every instance. Several hundred prisoners were taken, but we cannot say what number; either our own or the enemy's casualties. During the night the enemy made several attempts to regain what had been lost, but failed. (Signed.) STANTON.

WASHINGTON, June 3—10 P. M.—A dispatch dated 7½ P. M. of the 2d from Sherman's command, reports that on the 1st McPherson moved from Dallas, Ga., to a point in front of the enemy at New Hope Church. On the 2d Schofield and Hooker having been shifted to the extreme left, pushed forward toward Marietta. At the same time Stoneman's and Garrard's cavalry were sent to Alabama Pass, which they reached and held possession of. These movements, the dispatch says, have secured the Pass which had been considered a formidable one. Other movements are in progress which are improper to publish at present.

We have nothing from Grant since his dispatch yesterday morning. Telegraphic communication is obstructed by violent storms on the Peninsula.

(Signed) STANTON.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—A steamer from the White House yesterday, reports heavy cannonading heard when she left, indicating an engagement in progress. Cavalrymen from the front reported that the Sixth Corps was engaged having been brought by rapid movement from left to right. Several regiments of negro troops, doubtless a portion of Butler's forces, were being landed at the White House.

A dispatch from the Army of the Potomac at 3 o'clock P. M. of the 31st says: Birney's division advanced against the breastworks held by Breckinridge's Corps on the south side of the Tolopotomoy Crook on a high eminence, a very strong position, and might have been held against a vastly superior force. The enemy after firing a round or two, seeing our determination to take the place evacuated and retreated to the woods. Our loss was about 25 or 50.

An attempt was made to turn our left last night and cut us off from the White House, our new base of supplies, but was defeated with considerable loss on both sides.

FORTRESS MONROE, June 2.—At 7 yesterday morning the enemy attacked Butler's left wing and were repulsed. Our loss was slight. Smith's forces are reported to have captured Fitzhugh and 500 of his men, while attempting to make a raid on the White House.

NEW YORK, June 4.—The Times' special dated Headquarters of the Potomac, May 31st, closes thus: There is hardly a doubt but that the position now held by the rebels in our front is but an advanced line which they will hold as long as possible for the purpose of gaining time to perfect the defenses of the Chickahominy. On that historic line we now fully expect we shall ere long deliver battle. The result of this fight will be decisive whether the rebel capitol can be carried by coup de main or whether its destruction becomes the object of a summer's siege.

The Herald's correspondent with the Army of the Potomac says that all that was done Tuesday and Monday amounted to nothing more than a series of attempts to ascertain the enemy's position.

The Tribune's correspondent at the headquarters of the 6th corps, 11 miles north of Richmond, May 31st, says:

The line of rebel riflepits were carried by Hancock's division, and desultory firing occurred all day. Wright's corps is in very close proximity to the rebels—each party wishing the other to commence the attack.

Cairo, June 2.—The naval wharf-boat at Mound City was destroyed by fire last night, and the entire loss is probably half a million dollars, consisting, principally of naval stores. The Paymaster's safe, containing $400,000, will probably be recovered.

CHICAGO, June 2.—Richmond papers have the following telegrams:

MARIETTA, May 28.—Osborne's division engaged the 4th army corps under Howard at 1 o'clock this morning, and after a desperate conflict he signally repulsed the enemy with a loss of between 500 and 700. We took 750 prisoners, including the wounded, and an immense quantities of arms and accoutrements. Gen. Osborne says that the enemy's dead are piled thicker than he ever saw them before. Between 60 and 100 dead were left close to his front. Their line of breastworks in front of Loring's command was abandoned. Our loss probably 300. Skirmishing was going on against enemy's left, which was gradually giving way.

MARIETTA, May 29.—Grimby's brigade was placed in action at 5 o'clock yesterday morning, when the enemy attempted to turn our flank. We had no defences except some boughs and stones collected hastily together by the cavalry who held their position as skirmishers, until the brigade came up, when the engagement immediately became furious and raged with unabated violence until 8 o'clock this evening. The enemy's lines were advanced to within five paces of ours several times and were repulsed at every point. Having no support, the brigade was not allowed to change its position until midnight, when Ruff's brigade arrived and took position immediately in their rear. Grimby's loss was 120. Federals left 288 dead on the field and a large number wounded.

NEW YORK, June 2.—The Times' special says the House Committee on Foreign Affairs instructed the chairman to report a resolution, reiterating the former resolution on the Monroe doctrine, and maintaining that right. Congress indicates this policy for the Government, concerning the encroachments of France on this continent.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—Secretary Chase has sold one million of gold 90-691, in order to insure the greatest possible vigor in the operation of the armies now moving against insurgents, under brave and skilful generals, upon a vast theatre of operations, the expenditures have been increased beyond receipts from revenue, and ordering subscriptions to the National loan; therefore, the Secretary of the Treasury has advertised sealed offers to be received at the Department under the act of March 3d 1863, until June 15th, for the bonds of the United States to an amount of seventy-five million, bearing an annual interest of six per cent., payable semi-annually in coin, on the 1st of July and the 1st of January of each year, redeemable after the 30th of June 1881. Each offer must be for $50, a $100 or some multiple of 100.

NEW YORK, June 3.—The steamer transport City of Bath which sailed from New York on the 1st inst., for Washington, returned last evening with her bow stove in, and her stern carried away by having collided off Cape May with the steam transport Pocahontas from New Orleans for New York. The Pocahontas sank carrying down 40 of her crew and passengers. She had on board about 100 persons, among them a number of sick furloughed soldiers.

The Herald's Batchelor Creek, N. C., correspondent says that on removing four monster torpedoes from the train at that station, one exploded killing over 40 soldiers, mostly from New York regiments, and blowed the signal station and commissary building 500 feet feet long into the air.

CAIRO, June 4.—Forrest was last heard from at Corinth. The past week he has forwarded large supplies of forage in the neighborhood of Jackson. It is believed he is preparing for another advance into Kentucky. The western part that State is full of Faulkner's guerrillas who completely overrun the country, committing numerous depredations.

A steamer from New Orleans reports that when she arrived at Baton Rouge she learned that a dispatch had just been received, stating that 5 steamers had been burned at New Orleans since she left. No particulars.

Thanking their patrons for past favors, would beg them and the public in general to extend to them a share of their patronage. Portland, June 2d, 1864. dtf

Retiring from the Practice of Medicine.

A CARD.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY begs leave to announce to the public, and particularly to his patrons on the Pacific Coast, that he is about to close his business, with the view of retiring for the present from the arduous labors of his profession.

As it is his intention during the coming Fall to leave the United States, for the purpose of visiting Europe, he will not receive any new patients after the first day of July, 1864. Those, therefore who may desire his services will apply within a reasonable time. Dr Czapkay desires to assure those who are now under his care, that they will continue to receive all the attention which his obligations prescribe and their cases respectively demand. Those who hold contracts guaranteeing a cure are hereby requested to report to Dr. Czapkay before the first day of June, 1864, whether or not they are satisfied that a cure has been effected in their cases respectively. All who do not thus report within the time specified will be regarded and treated as cured.

In taking leave of his patients and the public, Dr. Czapkay desires to express his profound gratitude for the extraordinary patronage bestowed upon him, and the confidence reposed in his professional ability.

During his residence in California, Dr Czapkay has treated successfully upwards of twenty-five thousand patients, which is the best guarantee that his course of treatment has been rewarded with success at once personally gratifying and almost unprecedented in the annals of medicine.

Any physician in good standing who may desire to purchase the interest of Dr Czapkay in his "Institute," and the good will of his business, may make application at any time.

Address Dr L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office, San Francisco.

FOLLOWING THE CROWD.—The rush to the polls in this city yesterday was unequaled by anything of the kind that had ever been before witnessed in Portland. At an early hour in the morning the lines were formed, and those who were lucky enough to secure a place, or that had the time and patience to wait, voted. The greatest excitement seemed to be at the Court House, where the votes of the South Portland precinct were received. Voting was kept up until a late hour last night, and notwithstanding premiums were paid for eligible positions, many failed to get an opportunity to deposit their vote. The excessive rush did not seem to engender much ill-will, and while we expected to be required to notice sundry free fights, and broken noses, nothing of the kind has come to our knowledge, and the day was passed in a very quiet manner.

RING, RING, RING.—The large band of cows running loose about this city, most of which wear bells, have a practice of congregating at the south western part of town, and ring, from the shades of evening until dawn. The grass in that locality attracts them, and their feeding is attended by such a clatter that all the Plantation Bitters in the country would not make the inhabitants sleep. We think it is a subject that deserves to be noticed by the powers that be, and if cows must wear bells in the city they should be corraled for the night, at least. The present system is a nuisance, and detracts much from the flavor of cream and coffee at the breakfast table of not a few.

AUBURN DUST.—We had the satisfaction yesterday of examining a lot of Powder river gold dust, at the office of Wells, Fargo & Co., in this city. The Auburn dust is probably about as pretty "stuff" as was ever taken from a sluice box, and some of the amounts "cleaned up" about French Gulch in the early day was enough to coax almost any one away from the ordinary pursuits, and make honest miners" of them. We are pleased to see the ore coming from all quarters, and can congratulate the lucky few on their success, while we sympathize with the many, whose tough lot goes unrewarded from year to year.

YOUNG AMERICA.—About six o'clock last evening as the Stars and Stripes were being taken from the flag staff on the Plaza, where they had floated during the day, a knot of boys happened to discover the process, and started the cry of: "that man is hauling down the American flag! Shoot him on the spot!" The boys had evidently seen some of the posse stuck up about town, for electioneering purposes, and had a smattering of the sentiment of Gen. Dix.

THE BROKEN SHAFT.—Workmen have been at work in their efforts to remove the flanges from the broken shaft of the steamer New World, but they have been so far unsuccessful that yesterday one of them was demolished a order that a battering-ram might be sought to bear upon the wedges that hold the other. These flanges, or supporters of the wood, have become so cemented with rust that they nearly compose a part of the shaft itself, and every process to loosen them has been ineffective.

COULDN'T TESTIFY.—A young man from the country, after passing two hours in the line, and refusing a bonus for his chance yesterday, came out at the little end of the dilemma. Upon being challenged as to his age, he said that he "didn't know whether he was twenty-one or not!" He should have been excused on account of conscientious scruples, as he did not wish to testify to a circumstance he had no distinct recollection of, and it might be a question with him whether he was ever born or not.

MUSIC BY THE DAY.—The friends of the ticket, each yesterday employed a band of music, and good teams to haul them, and the streets were enlivened all day long by the most stirring strains of genuine brass instruments and drums. The music was good, but the performers on the horns complain that their lips correspond with the shape of the instrument's mouth-piece, rather more than nature designed them to be.

A BREAK DOWN.—As a man was driving down Front street yesterday, at no very moderate rate, his wagon uncoupled, and threw everything out, in passing over a cross walk, by the Post Office. The driver was pitched headlong after the horse, and lay in a stupefied condition for a few moments, but was picked up, and after a few repairs, went on his way rejoicing.

WARREN RECEDING.—For some few days past the waters in the Willamette have been receding at a rate about equal to the last of the rise. This is most likely the result of a dam in the upper Columbia country, that has placed a stop to the melting mood of mountain lake, snow banks, etc. We hope it may continue to recede.

SET 'EM UP.—The cobble stones, for the paving on First street, at the junction of Oak, are partly set in rows, and will be ready to receive the finishing knocks in a few days. This is the inauguration of a new era in the improvement of our streets, which we hope to see carried out effectually.

FROM THE CASCADES.—The O. S. N. Co.'s steamer Wilson G. Hunt arrived from the Cascades at 8 o'clock P. M. yesterday, bringing about 40 passengers and Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express, with $25,000 in treasure from Dalles and Walla Walla. Letters, but no treasure, came from Boise.

FREE RIDES.—The streets were filled with vehicles yesterday, to give free rides to all who would accept of them. Several took occasion to improve of the opportunity and visited all the sights to be seen between the north and south polls. The rides, however, were not so long as might be expected.

THE REGULAR RAIN.—If politicians become "irregular" sometimes in Oregon, the rain don't, and we had the regular squalls of an election day, yesterday, which has been customary in this country for a long term of years.

FLOUR.—There is a large quantity of flour in transit to the upper country at present. The steamer Senator yesterday brought over 1,000 sacks of flour, most of which is for the Dalles and Umatilla.

FINISHED.—The iron fronts for Mr. J. L. Parrish's new building have been finished, at the Portland Foundry, and the work commenced on similar pieces to be used for the building adjoining, by Messrs. Cohn & Lyon.

RATHER COOLING.—Mr. Bergman, who has just opened a superb ice cream saloon and candy factory, on First street in this city, sent to our office, about 12 o'clock last night, an elegant collation of ice cream and cake, which was very appropriately received, while we were warmly interested in the election returns, and had a tendency to cool off all hands very handsomely. Mr. Bergman has lately come among us, from the east, and as is evident, understands the business he is embarked in. Give him a call. See advertisement.

THE steamer Vancouver, Capt. Turnbull, arrived behind time yesterday, having delayed starting at the usual time in the morning, in order that the employees, who principally reside in Vancouver, might vote before leaving home.

THANKS.—Chas. Barrett of the newspaper depot in this city, has placed us under obligations for favors in his line.

☞ In every age of the World, the professions have been slow to admit the value of new discoveries, or the expediency of adopting them in practice. It is not to the legal profession that we look for reforms in jurisprudence, neither do we find the advocates of medical reform among physicians. Each deprecates whatever is found to innovate upon received opinions and established usage. Hence the opposition which medical men too often exhibit to the use of private nostrums, whatever their acknowledged value, or great efficiency in the cure of disease. No medicine has ever done more for the relief of human suffering than Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue. The certainty with which it cures Fever and Ague, and eradicates bile from the system, is acknowledged by all.

Be particular to enquire for Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue, and take no other. Sold everywhere.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties, and it is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity, as the safest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crisis of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants.—Sold by all Druggists and Dealers everywhere. ap26dlm

Diseases of Old Age.—A man approached his allotted three score and ten years the vital powers begin to fail; stimulants of various kinds are used to strengthen this naturally failing system, such as wines, bark, &c. Instead of these, let the aged keep up the supply of the true strengthening element, iron, by the PERUVIAN SYRUP, which offers a protoxide of that metal ready for immediate absorption.

From the army hospital—the bloody battle-field—the mansion of the rich and humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk—from the mountain top, distant valleys and far-off islands on the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world—is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands upon thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office.

RAHWAY, Wis., Sept. 16, 1864.

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

HAVEMEYER MANSION, FIFTY-SEVENTH STREET,
NEW YORK, August 2, 1863.

"DR. DRAKE: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness, and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well. * * * Respectfully, MRS. O. M. DEVOE."

etc. etc. etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c. all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum:

S. T.—1060.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

The Arctic Prison: a Thrilling Story of the Sea.

(Concluded)

"Good henvone, Mikeel, me think'e same," remarked another Portuguese—a little fat fellow by the name of Pat Plunket.

"Pokee (suppose it) duge, mikiI" (good) said a Kanaka.

"It does sound mightly like a dog," said the mate, as the barking became more distinct. "Perhaps it is Blusco, on the ice cake."

Turning the boat round with his steering oar, until her bows pointed in the direction of the noise, the mate now ordered us to paddle ahead. We obeyed, and the boat shot forward with an easy speed. The barking sounded nearer every moment, until at last we were quite convinced by its peculiarity, that it emanated from no other throat than that of Blusco.

"But where was he?"

This was the question that now rose to our lips. We could hear him plainly, but could see nothing of him. By the sound of his bark, we should have judged that he stood on the summit of an iceberg we were then approaching, and was but a few fathoms distant. Yet, notwithstanding this, no Blusco was there visible. What could it mean? Had some mermaid charmed the dog into invisibility?

We continued to approach. The barking became much louder, and was now full of frantic joy. The iceberg—a rather large one—trembled as though under the influence of an epileptic fit. Still, there was no Blusco in sight.

Our boat struck against the iceberg. A pair of bright eyes gleamed at us through a chink in the crystal wall—they were the eyes of Blusco! The mystery was explained. This monument of ice was hollow, forming a rude little chamber, in which the dog was snugly ensconced.

"My God! oh, heaven be praised! just look there, exclaimed the mate, turning to Bill, and motioning him to look through the crevice, from which he had just drawn his own eyes.

Bill did as requested, and beheld a sight which filled him with as much joy as it did with amazement. Reclining in one corner of this ice bound apartment—her long golden hair falling about her pale face, and the silken lashes veiling her beautiful eyes, he saw the unmistakable figure of little Lilian.

With a few blows of our hatchet we soon succeeded in affecting an opening in the ice wall. The little girl and Blusco were taken out and placed in the boat. We laid back upon our oars with all the strength we possessed, while the mate, drawing a brandy flask from his pocket, poured a few drops of the liquor down Lilian's throat. By the faint pulsations of her heart he knew that the currents of life were not yet frozen—that she had only sunk into that cold stupid kind of ease, from which there is no awakening.

The ship was reached at last. The mate ascended to the deck, and took the insensible burden that Bill passed up to him.

"Captain!" he exclaimed, as he descended the companion-way, "I have brought you no whale, but something that I think will be still more acceptable!"

The captain and his wife both caught sight of their child at once and at the same moment.

"My child! My Lilian!" screamed the mother, rushing forward to clasp her in her arms. Then noticing her pale face and drooping head, she sank into a seat, overcome by her feelings, and stretched forth her arms, faintly murmuring:

"Dead, dead, she is dead!" Give me my poor little dead girl."

"No—no, she is not dead," replied the mate. "If the proper measure can be taken, she can be restored in a few moments." So saying, he laid her upon the bed, and assisted the anxious father in his efforts to restore the circulation of her blood.

In a few moments they had the satisfaction of seeing Lilian open her blue eyes, and of hearing her speak the word "mother." The next instant she was pressed to the latter's bosom, and covered with tears and kisses. This probably helped nearly as much as the other operations had done to restore the circulation tint upon her cheek and lip.

The excitement having in some degree subsided, explanation followed.

Lilian stated that after her mother had left her to go on deck, she thought she would just go up, to get a little peep over the rail at the icebergs. This idea had no sooner entered her head than she carried it into execution. In leaning too far over the rail, however—the ship happened to give a lurch at the same time—she lost her balance and was precipitated into the waters. On rising to the surface she felt herself seized by the neck of the dress, and the next moment was dragged safely on to a large cake of ice. Then she perceived that her deliverer was noble Blusco. She felt terribly frightened, and clung close to the dog. She remembered that they were half shut in by three walls of ice, which partly prevented the waves from dashing in upon them. Suddenly the cake upon which they were standing came in contact with another one which towered up like a lofty column. When the concussion took place this lofty mass tottered over and fell upon the three walls of ice (by which the child and her dog were encompassed), in such a curious manner as to completly close them up, as though they were in prison. In this position she remained a long time, praying and hugging the dog by turns, until at last feeling cold and benumbed, she began to grow drowsy, and fell into a doze. Had her rescue from this situation been delayed a few minutes longer, we would never in all probability have succeeded in bringing her to life. As it was, a long time elapsed ere the natural freedom of circulation could be restored to one of her arms.

Many were the praises lavished on Blusco for his noble conduct, and although he shakes his head and turns up his broad nose when any person speaks to him about it, as much as to say "pshaw, it's nothing"—still we believe that in his heart he is proud of his exploit.

Some years ago, a Philadelphia merchant sent a cargo of goods to Constantinople.—After the supercargo saw the bales and boxes safely landed, he inquired where they could be stored. "Leave them here, it won't rain to-night," was the reply. "But I dare not leave them thus exposed, some of the goods may be stolen," said the supercargo. The Mahomedan merchant burst into a loud laugh as he replied: "Don't; be alarmed, for there ain't a Christian within fifty miles of here!"

Dean Swift was once asked to preach a short charity sermon. He complied with the request. The sermon is perhaps the shortest on record. We will quote it entire. Text: "He that hath pity upon the poor, lendeth to the Lord." Sermon: "If you like the security, down with the dust." The effect was electrical. An unusually large collection was taken up immediately after.

A letter from Vicksburg says there have been hundreds of instances where the rebels have thrown shells, with lighted fuses, by hand, over parapets at our men; and our boys would gather them up and toss them back to burst inside the rebel works. Such soldiers are invincible.

The Petereburg Express publishes the following from a reliable correspondent: A carpenter, while engaged recently in pulling down an old house, and in removing some of the rotten timbers near the ground, was bitten by a rattle snake. In a few moments the finger was swollen to four times its natural size, and a red streak commenced running up his hand and wrist. A deadly languor came upon him, and his vision grew dim, clearly indicating that the subtle poison that was coursing through his veins was rapidly approaching the citadel of life. But a remedy was tried, merely by way of experiment, which, to the surprise of all present, acted like a charm, the component parts of which were onion, tobacco and salt of equal parts, made into a poultice and applied to the wound, and, at the same time, a cord was bound tightly around the wrist. In two hours afterwards, he had so far recovered as to be able to resume his work. I knew an old Negro who cured a boy that had been bitten by a mad dog, by the same application.

A Most Remarkable Exhibit.—A little volume, said to have been prepared with great care, has been published in New York, which gives from official and other authentic sources a full and faithful narrative of all contributions offered by the people to the support of the armies, and to the solace of the sufferers of the war. We learn from it that the total contributions from States, counties and towns, for the aid and relief of soldiers and their families, have amounted to over $24,044,865 96; that the contributions at the same time for sufferers abroad have been $380,140 74; and that the contributions for freedmen sufferers by the New York riots of July, and white refugees, have been $539,544 13, making a grand total, exclusive of the expenditures of the Government, of $212,273,266 49.

A public writer who hampers his thought or his pen, with the futile hope of offending nobody, had better take to some line of business where pusillanimity is considered a virtue.

THE PROOFS OF ITS EFFICACY are so numerous, so well authenticated, and of such peculiar character, that sufferers cannot reasonably hesitate to receive the proffered aid.

The class of diseases for which the Syrup provides a cure, is precisely that which has so often baffled the highest order of medical skill. The facts are tangible, the witnesses accessible, and the safety and efficacy of the Syrup incontrovertible.

It is well known that the medicinal effect of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible.

In the Peruvian Syrup, this desirable point is attained by COMBINATION IN A WAY BEFORE UNKNOWN; and this solution may replace all the proto carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica. A. A. HAYES, M D, IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DISCovery of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to overestimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most eclectic and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is to act upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless, until Dr Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. J. R. Chilton of this city, and Prof. Booth, U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals, and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly," July 6, 1856, page 78.)

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER,

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases; Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Full directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all Druggists. Price, $1 per bottle. Prepared by Dr H. Anders & Co, Physicians and Chemists, New York.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS.

THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE REMEDY upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties.

Invigorate the System.

Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutritious blood, and nutritious blood a healthy frame. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the radical juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every fibre and nerve, muscle and fibre, and bring the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.

The best means of imparting vigor to the broken-down frame and shattered constitution, which have been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever measure it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthy invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A word to the Aged.

In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters,

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females.

Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and enlightens the depressed mental powers, as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any reaction.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS. Purchase only of reliable dealers. Sold everywhere.

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS attended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure for the maladies above mentioned, and also

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease any way connected with the disorders or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness. The unstrung and relaxed organization is at once refreshed, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; his shuffle ceases, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom and an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS AND CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGURY AND BURNING OR PAINFUL URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to
